

OVERHEAD THE TREE-TOPS MEET

from "PIPPA PASSES"

ROBERT BROWNING.

CLARA KATHLEEN ROGERS.

Op. 36

1844 - 1931

Andante, con moto tranquillo.

O - ver - head the tree - tops meet, Flow - ers and grass spring 'neath one's feet; There was nought a - bove me, nought be - low, My child - hood had not

C.K. Rogers

ten. acc?
 learned to know; for what are the voices of birds

a piacere

mf
sed. *

Ay and of beasts, but words,

sf

our words On - ly so much more sweet?

espress rall.

p rall. dolce.

mp
 The

calendo

know-ledge of that with my life be - gun, But, I had so near made out the sun, And count-ed your stars, the cresc.

sev - en and one, Like the fing - ers of my

p

hand; Nay, I could all but un - der - stand

espress.

ten.

Where fore through heav-en the white moon rang-es; And just when out of her soft fift-y chang-es No un-fam-il-iar

Misterioso, e molto tranquillo.

face might ov-er-look me Sud-den-ly God

sostenuto

took me,

allarg.

p pp