

Awake! It is the Day

HENRY W. LONGFELLOW

FLORENCE NEWELL BARBOUR

Allegro agitato.

mf

p a tempo

The wind came up from p dim. e rit. p a tempo out the sea, And said, "O mists make room for me," It mf hailed the ships, and cried, "Sail on, Ye mar - i - ners, the cresc.

night is gone." p And

f dim. e rit. p L.H.

a tempo hur - ried land - ward far a - way, — Cry - ing, "A - wake! for a tempo

p it is day." It touched the wood - birds fold - ed wing, And

p

cresc. mf

said, "O bird a - wake and sing." Sing _____

cresc. mf L.H.

Sing _____

L.H. p

mf

And o'er the farms, "O

mf

chan - ti - cleer, Your clar - ion blow, the day is near?" It

più animato

poco cresc.

whis - pered to the fields of corn, Bow

p

p più animato

poco cresc.

f agitato accel.

down and hail the com - ing morn. — A - waker A - f

f agitato accel.

cresc. molto

ff

waker 'tis day, A - - wake — A - -

cresc. molto

ff

waker

ff

ff