SHAME ON YE GALLANTS.

A Jacobite Song.

Words and Melody by Lady JOHN SCOTT.

With animation and force.

f non legato   sf

f

1. Shame on ye, gal - lants! that rise not rea - di - ly, Rouse ye and
2. Shame on ye, gal - lants! the sun shin - eth fair - ly, To bright - en each march at your Prin - ce's call. (C) Wha sae base but would step of the Con - qu' - ror's way; The winds are sing - ing a arm him spee - di - ly For the no - blest Stu - art a - mang them wel - come to Char - lie, And the re - bels are run - ning be - fore him the

Shame on ye Gallants

Lady Scott

all? He comes like the dawn on our lang night of sla - ve - ry, day.    Weel may we trust him to bear him - sel' daunt - less - ly;

Hope in his smile and light in his e'e; He sought us a - Scot - land can wit - ness frae he - roes he springs; No - ble his lone in his youth and his brav - er - y Frae the ty - rant u - sur - per to spi - rit, un - taint - ed his gal - lant - ry,      Worth - y the son of a set   us   free.

hun - dred kings!