Come along and retire with me,
The best is yet to be.
Remember the glad, forget the sad,
For it's agony and ecstasy.

We have served under three superintendents--
Johnson, Dorsey and Hayen.
They helped us a lot and we love them so,
That shouldn't go without sayin'.

An interesting thought occurs to me,
A pastor's a sister or brother,
The parishioners are cousins of a sort,
But the church is a Jewish mother!

As we strive and we serve and we walk thru despair,
Our faith we hope to enlarge,
The cabinet responds to our deepest needs
By assigning a three-point charge!

The comments of parishioners
Are really lots of fun.
I thought I'd like to share a few
Before my story's done.

When we looked for support and a member replied,
(before any bonds were formed)
You're not as bad as the last one we had.
My heart was strangely warmed!

The pastor went calling one sunny day
 On a family we held dear.
 A small girl answered the door and called,
 Hey, Mom, the creature's here.

But there are helpful folks in every church
 In the midst of the stress and the strain,
 And sometimes is heard an encouraging word,
 When you haven't got time for the pain.

Take the family out on Sat. nite,
 Get home just after three,
 In six short hours the church bell tolls--
 You know it tolls for thee!

Ministers and mates are in various shapes,
 We have the fatters and the thinners,
 I'm amazed that we're both sort of in-between,
 After 2,000 pot luck dinners!

We don't have treasures stored up on earth,
 Decayed and corrupted by moth.
 You learn to have more and more for less
 When you marry a man of the cloth.

The folks on the stage are experts by now
 In the process called decatheat.
 It's not retirement, they want us to know--
 Instead it is redirect!

So men, the direction we hope you will take,
 The stance we've prayed for thru life.
 Ask not what your wife can do for you--
 Ask what you can do for your wife!

- IV. The churches of the Kansas East Conference are called to accept their apportionments as fair and equitable way of fulfilling our local and global mission. Apportionments are not to be seen as taxes levied with loopholes and deductions, but as the church in mission in very real and concrete ways. We are called to view our apportionments not as obligations to be minimized, but as opportunities to be embraced out of our love for Christ and His mission in the world.
- V. Pastors and congregations are called to work toward fulfilling the Biblical and historical concept of stewardship and tithing until such time as all possessions are seen as gifts from God and until church budgets reflect a true picture of the financial strength of the membership of every church.
- VI. To these ends the following apportionment formula shall be used in the Kansas East Conference for the fair and equitable distribution of our connectional church responsibilities through the budget of the Annual Conference:
 1. The pension portion of the budget shall be computed according to remuneration paid to pastor(s). Remuneration is defined as total of pastor's salary paid, associate pastor's salary, and utilities and other cash allowances (columns 38, 39, and 40 in the Journal Statistical Tables).
 2. The remainder of the conference budget will be computed 1/3 on reported church membership (column 9) and 2/3 on adjusted giving. Petition #40, as amended, was approved. The count was:

concurrence-204; nonconcurrence-16; and abstentions-7.

Gary Parsons moved a petition on "Hunger". It was seconded.

"Whereas the Kansas East Conference stands against hunger and starvation that exists here in the U.S.A. and around the world;

"Whereas the Kansas East Conference opposes the storing of billions of bushels of grain while people starve;

"Whereas the Kansas East Conference opposes the financial pressure and economic stress being forced upon American farmers, causing them to lose their farms, homes and livelihood at an ever increasing rate;

"Whereas the Kansas East Conference feels the pain of its people and deplores the fact that bankruptcies and foreclosure are the dominant topic of discussion in rural communities.

"Be it therefore resolved that the Kansas East Conference petition the president of the United States to relieve the burden of the American taxpayer who spends $2 million a day to store surplus grain;

"Be it further resolved that this surplus grain be milled, and/or processed and placed in feeding stations throughout this country and the world".

He moved that the "Day Before" rule be waived. It was waived. Paul Waters moved to refer the petition to the Board of Church and Society. The question was called on the motion to refer. It was not referred. John Stumbo moved to amend by adding "Be it further resolved that the United States cease using food as a favor of foreign policy but that food be seen as a basic right of human beings and, therefore, that we have a duty to use stored grain to feed the world's people". It was seconded. The question was called. The Stumbo amendment was approved. The Hunger petition is to be counted. Conference approves the petition:

concurrency-312; nonconcurrency-6; and abstentions-5.

Carl Schenck moved that the floor be closed to new legislative material. It was seconded and approved.

PRIVILEGE MOTION-Walt Vernon suggested that unprinted petitions be sent to Annual Conference members. Doris Heikes was applauded for her work. The Manherz motion on total abstinence is before the conference. It was seconded. The vote was counted. 166 for; 137 against. It was approved.

Rod Saunders moved:

"an episcopal ruling, using the resources and expertise of the conference chancellor, be made in regards to the stipulation stated in the by-laws of The Kansas Area Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry, Inc., which appears to violate the standing rules of our Annual Conference, specifically III.1.g). If that by-law stipulation is ruled to be invalid, that the Kansas Area Commission be requested to replace the members who have served more than two quadrennium by the time of the 1988 Annual Conference. If that by-law stipulation is ruled to be valid, then this 1987 Session of Annual Conference requests that the Kansas Area Commission voluntarily seek to replace members who have served more than two quadrennium, so to be in agreement with the spirit, intention and concern of that standing rule, and so that commission will no longer be in the contest of perpetuating specific members without regards to time limitation. This ruling is to be made no later than Sept. 1, 1987".

It was approved.

PRIVILEGE MOTION-Oliver Green was introduced and expression of appreciation was made for his work as vice-chairperson of Session Committee.

Margaret West, Roy West, the counters and Larry Fry were introduced.

ANNOUNCEMENTS-Paul Mitchell read the announcements. The Garnett Church Furniture Company and Jenkins Music will be thanked for their contributions to the annual conference and also J.C. Penneys in Kansas City.

Special appreciation was given to Bishop Hicks.

Conference may be around June 13, 1988.

RECESS-The conference was in recess at 4:00 p.m.

WORSHIP-The Service of Going Forth included the reading of appointments by Bishop Kenneth W. Hicks, assisted by the district superintendents.
